TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[REPORTED FOR THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Later from Fredericksburg—The Yankees Driven back—Appeal to "My Maryland," &c.

RICHMOND, June 8.—The Yankees who crossed the Rappahannock, advanced on Saturday to take possession of Hamilton's Crossing, supposing all our forces had retired from that vicinity, but when they had approached within a mile and a half of the Railroad two or three of our Brigades made a dash at them. The Yankees, without firing a gun, fled to their entrenchments at Deep Run.

During the remainder of the day the enemy kept close behind their entrenchments. Frank Blair, recently elected in this city, was discharged. The weather was very cool here last night. Maj. Gen. Trimble has issued an address invoking all Marylanders to join the troops of that State serving in the Valley Districts.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

RICHMOND, June 8.—The Fredericksburg correspondent of the Dispatch says the Yankee skirmishers advanced across the river road on yesterday afternoon, but were promptly driven back, when their artillery opened an actual fire for about an hour. The Yankees were crossing and recrossing on pontoon bridges during the day.

Deserters say that twenty thousand men left Stafford and that the rest of Hooker's army had moved away. The enemy have dug rifle pits from Deep Run, down to over Bernard house, but have made no demonstration to the right, and it is believed they will leave to-

From Tennessee—Additional from the North, &c.

RICHMOND, June 8.—A dispatch from Shelbyville, June 7, says that all is quiet in the front. The Nashville Union of the 5th has a dispatch from Murfreesboro, on the 4th, which says a body of rebel cavalry attacked and drove in the pickets of one division under Jeff. C. Davis. Federals immediately rallied under arms and the rebels retired. At present there are no particulars. The Union has also information of heavy cannonading in the direction of Franklin on the fourth, between four and five o'clock, P. M.

CHICAGO, June 4th.—The President has revoked Burnside's order prohibiting the publication of the Times. A dispatch from New York, of the 4th, states that a Federal gunboat destroyed the town of Franklin, La., in consequence of being fired upon by guerillas. Admiral Foote supercedes Dupont.

BLOCKADE RUNNING.—Under this head the Dispatch has the following, which we adopt and cordially endorse:

Blockade running has become a regular business in the South. So great are the facilities for running merchandize in and out of the Confederacy, and so enormous the profits realized from these ventures, that every one with money to invest wishes to take a hand in the game, and new companies are being established every day with that view. It is therefore high time that the attention of our legislators should be given to the subject; it is one which calls for an early and searching investigation.

There can be no earthly doubt that the business of blockade running, as at present conducted, is doing much permanent injury to our circulation; that the morals of our people are anything but benefitted by it, as it panders to their vices, instead of ministering to their real wants; and there is abundant evidence to show that most of the cotton and tobacco which thus finds its way out goes into the hands of Yankee speculators, who flood our markets in return with their poisonous drugs and trumpery "notions."

It is the duty of the Government to gather all the facts bearing upon this matter, and to lay them before Congress on the very first day of the approaching session. The injury which the Confederacy has already sustained from the abuses of the present system is incalculable, and no time should be lost in deciding proper measures for making it what it ought to be, a benefit to us, instead of a positive curse, which it bids fair to become should its present operations be allowed to go on much longer unchecked. Nothing can be easier than to place this trade under such regulations and restrictions as will, to a great extent, prevent our enemies from deriving all its benefits, without the slightest compensating advantage to our people or Government. The suicidal "let alone" policy has been tried long enough, and we can all perceive with what results. Let a new and well guarded system be inaugurated as speedily as possible, the statesmen by whom such a reform shall be effected will deserve and receive the thanks of the nation.

SACKING A TOWN.—The Enquirer of Tuesday says:—On Saturday morning last, about 9 o'clock, four large gunboats, anchored off Tappahannock, and immediately commenced shelling the few pickets stationed in the village. The pickets retired a short distance, and the Yankees landed. Soon after the pickets made a stand, and drove the Yankees back. They (the Yankees) sent reinforcements, and soon drove the pickets away. Then commenced a wholesale plunder, and search of every house except one, in the place. The houses of neither age or sex escaped. Carried off everything they could, and destroyed such furniture as they could not take off; burned the warehouses containing government bacon, corn, &c., and carried off some negroes. The houses of females were entered, and in their presence their rooms were entered, and trunks, drawers, &c., broken open.

But the most wanton destruction of property was in the house of John A. Parker, Esq. This gentleman has, for some years, resided with his family near Richmond, when not in the employment of the Government and returned from a foreign country in July, last; but had a residence in the village, which with his furniture &c., was in the care of his servants, and no white person living on the lot. They entered the house, broke every lock, carried off bedding, chairs, his library, &c., and then cut up and destroyed every species of furniture they did not carry off. Many of the articles they threw in the river.

They said they would not have committed such outrages had they not been fired into by the pickets. The policy of firing on gunboats by pickets, without the least chance of doing them any injury, is a very doubtful one.

Why a large amount of Government stores were permitted to remain in a place so much exposed, remains to be explained by some one. It is well known that Yankee gunboats have been passing up the river for some weeks, and it would seem that that fact should have been sufficient notice that there was danger.

A WELL MERITED TRIBUTE.—The Milton Chronicle pays the following justly deserved tribute to Gov. Vance:

If the historian of this struggle for liberty and independence shall be at all inclined to do North Carolina justice, the name of Zebulon B. Vance, Governor of North Carolina, must shine forth as one of the brightest pacients of the age. What Governor in the South has so interested himself in staying the tide of desertion from the army, by appeals to patriotism and by inducements to desertors to return to the army and wipe out "the d——d spot?" But finding many whose callous or cowardly hearts these appeals cannot move, he has widely ordered every captain's district in the State to be vigilantly and thoroughly and daily patroled by militia squads, and all desertors, loiterers and sneaks arrested and sent to the army. Gov. Vance has done more to stop desertion and catch desertors than all the other Governors of the South combined. Gen. Hill, himself, is not more "dead down" on desertors and sneaks than his Excellency Gov. Vance, who is now after them with a "sharp stick" in the hands of the militia. He is making North Carolina too hot a place for a desertor to stay—even now he is literally hoeing the woods burnt to find them.

Because our Governor has taken active measures to catch desertors, while other States seem unconcerned, it must not be taken for granted that North Carolina has more desertors than any other State; no, for the truth is most of the other States have two to her one. Virginia is beset with them, they infest the woods and are almost as thick as blackberries in the summer season.

FROM THE WEST.—The Rebel of Tuesday last says:—The situation improves at an amazing rate. Troops that have been sent to reinforce Gen. Johnston in Mississippi are being sent back to the Grand Army of Middle Tennessee. Our advices from Mississippi are of the most cheering character, and we are at a loss to comprehend why General Johnston should have sent Gen. Breckinridge's corps back to Middle Tennessee. He must be in a secure condition, either from his position or from an abundance of troops. Our dispatches state that Grant is being heavily reinforced, but no fears need be entertained on that score, as Gen. Johnston has received the very flower of our noble armies.

From the front various rumors come up, all of them foreshadowing an early advance of our forces. Let us "clear the decks and prepare for action!"

NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.
NEW SERIES.

IT IS CONTEMPLATED TO RESUME THE PUBlication of the North-Carolina Christian Advocate early day, under the patronage of the North-Carolina Conference, and under the direction and ownership of a Stock Company, composed of ministers and laymen. The paper will be in its name imports, a CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE. It will sustain and defend the doctrines and discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and labor to advance Christ's Kingdom on earth, and to promote peace and good will among all men.

Besides its earnest, religious character, it will be the advocate of the moral, educational and industrial interests of North Carolina—a welcome visitor to every fireside, to the camps of our brave soldiers, and a faithful chronicler of what may be useful and interesting, and the current news.

All our traveling and local ministers and laymen are Agents of the Company, and are specially requested to act as Agents for the paper.

The old subscribers of the Advocate will be supplied from the new series, to the full amount due them at the time of the suspension. But as the mail books are now in the hands of the publisher, he must rely on the old Agents and the Agents, to furnish him with the names and post offices and the amount due them.

The Advocate will be well printed on new type, and will contain an amount of reading matter equal to any paper in the State.

During the continuance of war prices, the subscription price will be $3 per annum, always in advance.

Agents who send us ten or more new subscribers, with the cash, will be entitled to a copy of the paper for one year. It is desirable that a large list be secured.

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

TUESDAY, JUNE 9, 1863.

ADVANCE IN OUR TERMS.

When we commenced the publication of the PROGRESS here in November, we got paper at 25 cents per pound and fixed our prices accordingly, but now we pay 50 cents a pound for paper, while ink, labor, telegraph news, and everything else has advanced from 50 to 100 per cent.—For these reasons we are compelled to make a slight advance in our terms of subscription to enable us to meet the heavy expenses of publication and support those dependent on us. If paper falls in price we shall fall; but if, on the other hand, it continues to go up, we shall have to go up or suspend, and we cannot think the public would submit to that.

On and after the 1st day of June, 1863, the price of subscription will be as follows:

Daily Progress	One year - - -	$10 00
" "	Six months - -	6 00
" "	Three months -	4 00
" "	Two months -	3 00
" "	One month - -	1 50

Until the 1st of June subscriptions will be received at the present terms.

Agents and newsdealers will be furnished at the old rates.

☞ How to send us Money.—To avoid all risk in sending money for subscription by mail, we have made arrangements with the Southern Express Company, by which all money can be sent for subscription to the PROGRESS at our risk and expense. Subscribers will enclose the amount to be sent in an envelope directed to the DAILY PROGRESS, and seal with wax, writing their name and Post Office, and the amount sent on the outside. Deliver the same to any Agent of the Southern Express Company, and take his receipt. Send a letter to us by mail, advising us of the date when sent.

Forward! For two long years and over we have tried the defensive policy, and though glorious victories have shed their lustre upon our arms and the immense hosts of the enemy have recoiled and fled before the impetuous, vigorous charges of our gallant troops, we are, nevertheless, reminded that no material advantage has been gained; that our territory and property is gradually passing from us, and that eventually, a war upon our own soil, as heretofore conducted, must result disastrously to us. Not only do the people feel this, but we have the best reasons in the world for believing that those who manage affairs at Richmonds realize it in all its force, and that the command, forward! has already been given.

For two long years have we suffered invasion, robbery, devastation and ruin, and the universal voice favors retaliation and vengeance. Let Vicksburg, Charleston, and even Richmond smoulder in ruins—we care but little, so our victorious hosts apply the torch to Washington, Philadelphia and other Yankee towns and cities. Though they have stolen and appropriated our property, the most scrupulous regard has been had to their rights, as though our authorities feared that they should be made to feel the horrors of the system they have inaugurated. We think the past has clearly established the fact that we can never conquer a peace or free our territory from the presence of the hated invaders by fighting on our own soil. We meet the enemy and whip them, killing and wounding thousands and tens of thousands, but what does it amount to? Do we regain any territory?—Do we relieve any of our people? Do we recapture any of our towns and cities? No. We simply beat the enemy and retire to our former quarters, that's all. They bury their dead, care for their wounded, and then recuperate and recruit (they have the world to recruit from) and come at us again. They care but little for our victories, for the loss of 19,000 men cripples us much worse than the loss of 100,000 does them.

Forward! In the name of common sense and common humanity, let us forward! And if our men are to be killed up let it be upon Northern soil, in sight of the smouldering ruins of their towns and cities and within hearing of the cries, shrieks and lamentations of their women and children. As at present conducted the suffering is all on our side and the fun all on theirs. If Richmond falls let it fall, so we only get Washington and Philadelphia in exchange for it. And this too is the only way to free our own soil of the presence of the enemy. Mass all the troops we have and let one column start for Philadelphia and the other for Cincinnatti, burning and destroying as they go, and the South will soon be freed from the presence of the enemy. We can never whip them back, nor does any sensible man for a moment entertain such an idea, but if we want them to leave us, we apply the torch to their homes. Surely we have nothing to lose by such a policy and may gain much, for a brilliant and successful campaign on the soil of the enemy would most probably end the war.

Gen. Lee they tell us is in motion. We hope the report is true, and that his destination is Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia. If we want peace let us sack and burn the city of "Brotherly Love"—it would do more to close the war than a thousand such victories as the two we have so dearly won at Fredericksburg. Essays and invocations amount to nothing now. If our government would give confidence to the people, revive and invigorate the currency and send a thrill of joy throughout the Confederacy, just let Stuart burn Philadelphia, and lay waste the country between there and the Potomac. Such a campaign, too, would carry consternation to the firesides of the enemy, and the peace party in the North would receive immense accessions.

We beg our friends to possess their souls in patience and keep their ears strained for tidings from beyond the Potomac. We have cause to believe that the command forward! has passed along the lines, and that already our brave veterans are treading the soil of the enemy, or thundering at the gates of the Federal Capital.

John D. Hyman, Esq., is spoken of as a candidate for Congress in the 10th district. Mr. Hyman served as a volunteer in the field until badly disabled by a wound at Seven Pines, and is a gentleman of fine talents and would serve the State and country faithfully in any position. The people of the 10th could make no better selection.

The Louisville Journal says that the New Jersey Legislature has passed a bill providing for the non-shading of the skins of the negro recruits.

We publish to-day the opinion of Chief Justice Pearson, in the case of Marooney. This man had been arrested by the enrolling officer, when a writ of habeas corpus was applied for, and Maroney, for the reasons set forth, discharged from custody. The opinion of Judge Pearson, in this case, is clear and comprehensive and may be understood by the commonest mind. It will be read with satisfaction by every man in the State who retains any regard or affection for laws and constitutions. There is a reckless, ignorant set, who, having lost sight of and respect for these landmarks, will ridicule the decision and abuse the author, but we say to every lover of personal liberty, that it is well for us, in these times of war, petty tyranny and bayonets, that there are a few men like Judge Pearson left.

PROMOTIONS.—Lt. Col. Kenneth M. Murchison, of Cumberland, has been made Colonel of the 54th Regt N. C. Troops, vice J. C. S. McDowell, deceased. Major Anderson Ellis of Rowan, has been made Lieutenant Colonel of the 54th, vice Murchison, promoted. Capt. James A. Rogers, of Northampton, has been made Major of the 54th, vice Ellis promoted. Major William G. Morris of Gaston, has been made Lieut. Colonel of the 37th Regiment N. C. Troops, vice Ashcraft resigned. Capt. Owen N. Brown of Mecklenburg, has been made Major, vice Morris promoted.

The Supreme Court assembled in this city yesterday, all the Judges present.

All the Georgia papers speak in the most glowing terms of the wheat crop in that State. Judging from the tone of our exchanges the wheat, generally, was never better. The Yankees may abandon the idea of starving us.

SECOND REGT. N. C. T.—There having occurred many errors in the casualties of the 2d, as heretofore published, we give, to-day, the list as made out by the Adjutant of the Regiment.

Col. Jones K. McAnally, an enrolling officer was waylaid and murdered in Grainger county, Tenn, a few days ago.

From Murfreesboro', N. C.

CAMP JENKINS, Murfreesboro', June 5th, 1863.

DEAR PROGRESS:—Military operation in this portion of the department of North Carolina, and also on the lines of the Blackwater, are quite active at present. Though the enemy have made no real demonstrations, in anticipation of some forward movement by them, our commanders are rapidly pushing forward preparations to foil his designs. What place is to be the point of interest, I am not yet able to say; nor would I consider it prudent, were I in possession of the facts. It is reported that large reinforcements have landed at Plymouth, and also that the different military posts from there to Norfolk have all been considerably strengthened.

The bloody month of June is once more upon us, and everything indicates that it will rival if not excel any of its predecessors. May we not hope that this June will decide the contest, that Divine vengeance will be satiated, and that once more we may be in peace, which I think we shall all be fully prepared to appreciate.

Mr. Editor, before closing this letter allow me to ask one question, on which I desire a little information. I would be glad to know why it is that while some Regiments in the service are paid off regularly every two or three months, others receive their pay only once or twice in twelve months. Our Regiment has not been paid off now in nearly six months. Most assuredly it cannot result from a scarcity of money, when the land is filled to overflowing with it. While there is a plenty of money to meet all other demands, those who go forth to battle in defence of the country, are left unpaid the poorly pittance of eleven dollars a month, which they are almost compelled to have, to augment the scanty rations issued from the Commissary Department. The fault lies somewhere, and where? It is my opinion that it lies with those haughty A. Q M's who ride about and speculate, and live on the luxuries of the land, and keep up their spirits on brandy at forty dollars per gallon.

Should this letter ever meet the eyes of Gen. Robertson, we do most sincerly hope that he will look carefully into the matter and find out where or who the defaulter is.

Yours, &c., W. D. H.

SWIFT CREEK, CRAVEN COUNTY, June 2, 1863.

ED. PROGRESS.—Dear Sir: It is with pleasure I call to your notice a daring act of Capt. Ed. Whitford, (Whitford's Battalion.) The Capt. having learned that there was a picket force of the enemy quartered at the plantation of N. H. Street, Esq., near Street's Ferry, (their forces unknown,) left his quarters on the morning of the 20th of May, with some 20 of his men, and after crossing the river in small boats, he so arranged his small force as to cut off their retreat at every point except by the river. He then ordered a portion of his men to close upon the place where they were stationed. It was not long before they were upon them—ten able bodied Abolitionists, well armed, &c. They were so badly frightened that they showed no disposition to fight or make their escape, but threw down their arms and surrendered.

Capt. Whitford is the very man for this section of country. He and the men under his command are brave, I may almost say to a fault. In performing their duty as scouts, watching the movements of the enemy, &c., I have often thought it impossible for them to avoid being captured, but knowing the roads and almost every path between this place and Newbern so well, they always make their escape from the enemy, who never ventures out of gun-shot of their forts, but with a large force.

I have endeavored to get all the information from Newbern that could be relied on. The force in Newbern is some 5 or 6000. From the best information I can get, they are expecting a negro brigade to fill the place of the volunteers, who are now being mustered out of service. Col. Jones, in command on Batchelor Creek, was killed dead on the spot, on Saturday 23d of May, near Redin Richardson's. He had just been promoted to Brig. General. I am told that Foster lamented this death very much, remarking that he had rather have lost any three other Brigadier Generals in his command than Gen. Jones.

Col. Anderson is yet at Barrington's Ferry with the 92d New York Regt. Col. Classon, 132d New York is now quartered in place of Col. Jones, at Batchelor Creek. I have been informed that the Regiment is made up entirely of the lowest sort of Irish and Dutch, a real gang of cut-throats. That Pennsylvania Regiment that was at Wilkinson's Point, 20 miles below Newbern a few days ago, has left, after burning school houses and churches, and getting all the negroes off that they could. All quiet below.

Yours truly,

E.

For the Progress.

BY THE GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, THE TIME LIMITED IN MY PROCLAMATION, dated the 8th of May, forbidding the exportation of certain articles from the State, for thirty days from the 13th of the same month, will soon expire:

Now, therefore, I, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor of North Carolina, do, by and with the advice of the Council of State, issue this Proclamation, continuing said prohibition thirty days from the 12th inst., subject to the exceptions and restrictions contained in said Proclamation of the 8th of May, and entrusting the execution of this Proclamation to Justices of the Peace and Militia Officers.

(SEAL) In witness whereof, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor, Captain General and Commander-in-Chief, hath signed these presents and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed.

Done at the City of Raleigh, this 8th day of May, A. D., 1863, and in the year of our Independence the 87th.

By the Governor: Z. B. VANCE.

R. H. BATTLE, Jr., Private Secretary.

TRUNK EXCHANGED.

LOST, ON TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 4TH, AT the N. C. Depot, an ordinary size BLACK TRUNK, brass bound, brass head tacks, with a card upon one end marked Appolus Stanton. Said Trunk contained ladies apparel consisting of several Silk Dresses, 10 yards of Grey Cassimer Cloth, &c.

The Trunk received in place of the above was one about the same size and description, and belongs to a soldier supposed to be from Georgia, as a newspaper found in the Trunk was marked E. M. Byrd, and contained a pair of shoes, clothing, provisions of several kinds, a ladies daguerreotype, &c. The Trunk is now at the Exchange Hotel, in Raleigh. The owner will please bring forward the other Trunk, or make known its whereabouts to the proprietor of the Exchange Hotel, Raleigh, so that it can be sent for and an exchange effected.
